peated hits were observed on three other German battleships that were Finally, a German submarine was "The German report that the entire British battle fleet was engaged is equally untrue. A portion of the British fleet, much inferior to the total bat tle fleet of the Germans, engaged tha The British control the North sea."

Mines Are Thrown Out.

A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Copenhagen says: "During the retreat of the German German floating mines were seen in the North sea. Fishermen say that a cruiser struck a mine fifty miles north-west of the Wyl lightship, outside Blaavandshuk. Only a few men of the crew were saved."

Scenes Are Distressing.

Scenes at the admiralty this morn ing were extremely distressing, the building being besieged by relatives and friends of the crews that were in the engagement. A splendid system has been devised to give them infor-"During the retreat of the German mation as soon as it is received, but let large numbers of mines were naturally in the case of a fight such as Today (Friday) several that which occurred on Wednesday the ting mines were seen in lar scenes were witnessed at various

As for the fight and its result, there was an inclination this morning, after the receipt of the later official account, not to consider the outcome of the en-Wounded Reach London.

Wounded men from the North sea battle reached London today. They were quickly removed to hospitals or their homes by Red Cross ambulances.

The public was strictly prohibited from talking to the men, but crowds assembled at the railway stations, cheer-

FULL GERMAN FLEET ENGAGED; HELD FIELD AFTER FIGHT, CLAIM

and older battleships, battle cruisers

"The German reconnoitering forces 150 miles off the Danish coast. The bat-

"All German reports emphasize the bravery shown by the British during the fight, which lasted almost without interruption for twelve hours.

"H. M. S. Frauenlob must be definitely considered lost. Apparently she sank during the night in one of the smaller engagements. Five German torpedo boats have not returned, but a large part of the men have been rescued.

part of the men have been rescued.
"Although the weather was unfa-

MAY CIRCULATION

District of Columbia, ss.: FLEMING NEWBOLD, business manager of THE EVENING and SUNDAY STAR, does sol-emnly swear that the actual number of copies of the paper named sold and distributed during the month of May, A.D. 1916, was as follows:

	DAI	LY.
Days.	Copies.	Days.	Copies.
1	81,881	16	79,967
2	82,085	17	79,807
3	81,389	18	79,956
4	81.402	19	80,288
B	81.306	20	78,495
6	79.567	22	79,388
8	79,833	23	79,900
9	80.614	24	80,776
10	80,905	25	79,545
11	81,069	26	79,089
12	80,282	27	77,898
13	78,919	29	77,999
15	79.762	30	65.361
		31	78,405
		2.3	145.888
Less returns	and ad	ljustments	7,016
Total daily r		ulation 2,	138,872

Average number of copies for service, exchanges, adver-tisers, etc. Average daily net circulation. SUNDAY.

Copies. Days. 59.395 21..... 58,736 28.....

Less returns and adjustments.. Total Sunday net circulation. 227,288
Average paid net Sunday circulation 55.341 55.34 lation
Average number of copies for services, exchanges, advertisers, etc.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this thir y of June, A.D. 1918. (Seal.) CHAS. J. COLUMBUS.

1,738

naval ports from which the crews were

Scene of Engagement.

Detailed reports have not yet been re

Reach Home Port Safely.

miral Scheer is expected soon.

BERLIN, June 3, by wireless to Sayville.—"Supplementing the official report of the admiralty," says the Overseas News Agency, "it is stated by a competent authority that in the North sea battle the Germans had in action the blue sea fact with dreadnaughts. the high sea fleet, with dreadnaughts and also light sea forces, including torpedo boat and submarine flotillas. ceived, but the main engagement appar-The Germans faced the greater part of ently occurred about 125 miles southwest of the southern extremity of Norway, and were commanded by Rear Admiral the was divided into two sections. The French Report Repulse of Hipper. These forces first entered into day engagement began at about 4 o'clock combat with the enemy's battle cruis-ers and light cruisers at about 5 p.m. in the afternoon and continued until dark-ness, or about 9 o'clock. This was fol-lowed by a series of separate engage-ments through the night. ers and light cruisers at about 5 p.m. Later the main forces on both sides took part. During the day battle German torpedo boats several times entered into action successfully, one of them three times. The fight kept on until 9 o'clock in the evening.

Make Violent Attacks.

"During the night both sides made violent attacks with torpedo boats and cruisers, in which there were further British losses. The leading German ship annihilated six modern British destroyers.

"All German reports emphasize the"

Iowed by a series of separate engagements were say and courses of the day engagement were not extreme, possibly at a distance of about eight miles, as the weather was hazy.

The German torpedo boats and destroyers were more effective than the British, accounting to a considerable extent for the successes of the German torpedo boats and destroyers were more effective than the British, accounting to a considerable extent for the successes of the German torpedo boats and destroyers were more effective than the British, accounting to a considerable extent for the successes of the German torpedo boats and destroyers were more effective than the British, accounting to a considerable extent of the German torpedo boats and cutter was hazy.

The German torpedo boats and destroyers were more effective than the British, accounting to a considerable extent of the German torpedo boats and destroyers were more effective than the British, accounting to a considerable extent of the German torpedo boats and cutter was hazy.

To FORCE A DISTANCE A DISTAN

PRESSING ON CONGRESS TO PASS LABOR BILLS having the highest scale of compensation. The McGilliculdy bill has already been favorably reported to the House. If the supporters of the Kern measure are successful in having that piece of legislation reported favorably in the near future they believe that it may be possible to have Congress act on the joint measure before the democratic convention takes place. This was one of the planks of the democratic convention takes place. This was one of the planks of the democratic platform, and it is believed that party leaders in Congress are anxious to have the pledge fulfilled before the fall campaign. The McGilliculdy bill has already before the House. Except for this gain, the statement says, the Germans were repulsed with heavy losses. Spirited fighting continued in the Argonne, west of the Verdun sector. Two German attacks to the possible to have Congress act on the joint measure before the democratic platform, and it is believed that party leaders in Congress are anxious to have the pledge fulfilled before the fall campaign.

Convention.

Advocates of the federal workmen's compensation bills now pending in Congress are hopeful today that the bills may be passed before the national democratic convention takes place. With this hope in mind, friends of the bill are making every possible effort to obtain early ac

Miss Irene Sylvester, Washington's representative of the American Association for Labor Legislation, which framed the Kern-McGillicuddy bill, said today that he regarded the favorable report of the Senate judiciary committee on the Suthrland bill yesterday as an indication that Congress is favorable to this sort of legistion. She explained that by the raising of Representatives, state officers, countries standards of a number of points the standards of a number of points the Sutherland bill this measure had en made to conform in many respects the Kern biil.

Prefer the Kern Bill.

eration of Labor. It is based on those and vot state laws generally regarded best and counties

In Race for Governor.

Interest was centered on the race between Lieut. Gov. E. L. Daughtridge and Attorney General T. W. Bickett for the democratic gubernatorial nomination, and the contest in the second con gressional district where Representative Claude Kitchin was opposed for renomination by Clingman W. Mitchell. Both Daughtridge and Bickett claimed Both Daughtridge and Bickett claimed victory by majorities of from 25,000 to 30,000. In the Kitchin-Mitchell contest Kitchin partisans declared Mitchell would carry not more than one county in the district, while Mitchell supporters predicted the nomination of their candidate. Representative H. L. Godwin of the sixth district was the only other congressional candidate opposed for renomination.

NORTH CAROLINA TODAY

IS HOLDING PRIMARIES

Democrats Have Contests for Governor and Two Seats in Congress.

for renomination.

Four candidates were seeking nomination in the seventh district to suc-ceed Representative R. N. Page, who recently announced that because of his administration he would not seek re-election.

Split on Vice President.

Lieutenant governor, auditor and superintendent of public instruction were the only state offices not contested for. A light republican presidential prefrence vote and a heavy democratic vote for President Wilson, with a di-vision between Vice President Marshall and Gov. Major of Missouri, was preficted.

Because of the length and arrangement of the ballot it was expected the returns would be late coming in. Sweden Votes Military Credit.

STOCKHOLM, June 2, via London June 3, 3:45 a.m.—The Swedish government has decided to accept a vote of credit of 8,000,000 kroner to cover the immediate military needs.

UPPER: FINAL OF FIFTY-YARD DASH, EIGHTY-FIVE-POUND CLASS

LOWER: WINNERS OF THE FIRST THREE EVENTS. LEFT TO RIGHT-

ARTHUR PRENDER, ROBERT SMITH AND HARRY ROSENBERG.

WON BY ROBERT SMITH.

(Continued from First Page.)

approves of the plan to hold a pre-aredness parade, and that its mem-pers are to participate.

Dr. Mark F. Finley, president of the Woodbury Blair has notified the preparedness parade committee that the Metropolitan Club, of which he is president, plans to have a big representation in line. At a meeting of the board of directors of the club the

The National Press Club already has

The National Press Club already has voted to participate, and Robert D. Heine is chairman of a committee which is making arrangements.

The Rotary Club of Washington has decided to take part in the demonstration, and expects to have about seventy-five members in line. They will wear dark blue coats, white fiannel trousers and straw hats. D. J. Callahan is president of the club; E. C. Graham, vice president; John Brawner, secretary, and T. C. Dulin, treasurer.

The Builders and Manufacturers' Exchange expects to have about fifteen automobiles in line, according to information which has been received at parade headquarters. Officers of this organization are John L. Parsons, president; Andrew Murray, vice president, and Charles E. Welsh, secretary.

Engineers May March.

John H. Finney is at work organizing he electric and civil engineers of the city into a marching unit. Included in this section will be members of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers and the American Chemical Society. Mr. Finney believes the unit will number between 200 and 400 marchers.

Washington Society of Engineers, the

FURIOUS FIGHTING IN REGION OF VAUX

Fierce German Onslaughts, Save in One Place.

TO FORCE A DECISION

Great Concentration of Teuton Forces on the Right Bank of the River Meuse.

PARIS, June 3 .- The battle of Verdun All the German warships except those reached a point of unprecedented viomentioned in the official report reached lence in the last forty-eight hours. The Wilhelmshaven safely. Thus far noth- Germans made a formidable effort to ing has been reported regarding the ex- mass reinforcements on the right bank tent to which any of these vessels were of the Meuse, supported by a great damaged. A fuller report from Ad- number of heavy pieces drawn from other fronts.

"Although the weather was unfavorable for aerial reconnoitering during all the time of the engagement, naval airships and aeroplanes contributed considerably to the success of the German sea forces by reconnoitering and by the speed with which they and by the speed with which they acted."

It is stated at the admiralty that at least thirty-four British capital ships were engaged and that the British torped fotillas were severely handled, and by the speed with which they ask torpedo boats during night encounters.

The concentration of the German forces is taken here to indicate a suppression of the German forces in the concentration of the German forces is taken here to indicate a suppression of the German forces in the concentration of the German forces is taken here to indicate a suppression of the German forces in the concentration of the German forces is taken here to indicate a suppression of the German forces is taken here to indicate a suppression of the German forces is taken here to indicate a suppression of the German forces is taken here to indicate a suppression of the German forces is taken here to indicate a suppression of the German forces is taken here to indicate a suppression of the German forces is taken here to indicate a suppression of the German forces is taken here to indicate a suppression of the German forces is taken here to indicate a suppression of the German forces is taken here to indicate a suppression of the German forces is taken here to indicate a suppression of the German forces is taken here to indicate a suppression of the German forces is taken here to indicate a suppression of the German forces is taken here to indicate a suppression of the German forces is a suppression of t were engaged and that the British forirbuted considerably to the success of irbuted considerably to the success of irbuted considerably to the success of
and the speed with which the sacted."

Germans Maintain Field.

The first naval battle on a grand scale during the present war has been attended by results which, according to the information received here, are highly satisfactory to the Germans, not only in respect of the comparative hosses of the two fleets, but in the fact that the Germans maintained the field
field the field that the Germans maintained the field field the battle. This is shown, German commentators assert, by the rescue of their survivors.

Were engaged and that the British forpreme attempt to bring the long frawn-out attack on the fortress to a successful issue and to prevent a general offensive by the allies. Despite the intensity of the attack, involving enormous losses, the French official acsources the main lines are not only in respect of the comparative has a remarkable demonstration in the
that the Germans maintained the field
after the battle. This is shown, German commentators assert, by the rescue of their survivors.

The McGilliculdy bill has already been favorably reported to the Hospital field the supporters of the Kern places of the Kern places of the Mcuse, the Germans portion of the two fleets, but in the fact that the Germans maintained the field
field the proper of the comparative
that the Germans maintained the field
field the proper of the comparative
that the Germans maintained the field field the main lines are not only in respect of the comparative
that the Germans maintained the field
that the Germans maintained the field that the German seed and to prevent a gencal offensive by the attack, involving enormous losses, the French official acsourcesful issue and to prevent a gencal offensive by the attack, involving enormous losses, the French official acsourcesful issue and to prevent a gensuccessful issue and to prevent a gendiffensive b

tion of today follows:

"In the Champagne district to the west of Mont Petu certain detachments of the enemy which, following an intense bombardment, had penetrated some of our minor advance posts were dislodged by counter attacks, in which hand grenades were used.

"In the Argonne district yesterday evening a German attack on a salient of our line to the west of La Fille Morte was repulsed after a fairly spiritted encounter. A second attack at about 8 p.m. also was completely checked.

"Metropolitan Club to Join.

"On the left bank of the River"

"In the Champagne district to the association, asked that he be notified as to the position the association, asked that he be notified as to the position the association is to have in line as soon as this is arranged.

Maj. Harry Coope, adjutant general of the marchers from that organization will be permitted to carry their cance will be permitted to carry their cance of the marchers from that organization as the marchers from that organization of the parade and straw hats. In a letter to the parade committee, R. E. McCormick, secretary of the club, asked whether the marchers from that organization of the parade, and straw hats. In a letter to the parade committee, R. E. McCormick, secretary of the club, asked whether the marchers from that organization will be permitted to carry their cance of the marchers from that organization of the parade as an aid. Maj. Coope served as aid the parade held at the immediate parameters of the Club as a National Guard officer as a National Guard officer the marchers from that organization will be permitted to carry their cance of the marchers from that organization will be permitted to carry their cance of the marchers from that organization of the parade and straw hats. In a letter to the association, as this is arranged.

"In the Champagne district vesterday will be marchers from that organization of the parade and straw hats. In a letter to the association, as the in line as to have marchers from that organization of the parade c checked.

"On the left bank of the River Meuse our positions from Hill No. 304 to our second line have been subjected to a violent bombardment.

Furious Onslaughts.

"On the right bank of the river the RALEIGH, N. C., June 3.—Candidates fighting is going on in the sector of for membership in the national House Fort Vaux with the same ferocity as before. All the onslaughts of the enty offices in more than sixty counties emy upon our trenches to the west and and the legislature were being nomi- to the east of the fort have been renated today in the first legalized pri- pulsed. Against the fort itself the mary ever held in North Carolina. The Germans multiplied their furious as-It does not conform in all respects, bewever, with the higher standards of the Kern measure, and for that reason supporters of federal compensation legislation are anxious that the Kern bill should be the one adopted.

The Kern bill has been indorsed by President Wilson, also by the Department of Labor and the American Federation of Labor. It is based on those state laws generally regarded best and

First Line Trenches of British in Ypres Salient

LONDON, June 3.—The following of ficial statement was issued from British headquarters last night: "Sharp fighting occurred today (Friday) in the Ypres salient on a front of approximately 3,000 yards between Hooge and the Ypres-Comines railway. Following the artillery activity in this neighborhood reported in yesterday's (Thursday) communication, the Germans began an intense and sustained bombardment at 9:15 a.m., which extended not only over the fronts men tioned, but on the area behind. This was followed about midday by hostile infantry attacks, which succeeded in penetrating our first trenches at several points, but which we repulse eral points, but which we repulsed elsewhere. At 6:30 p.m. the enemy's artillery fire was less intense, but the fighting continued in this locality. "Last night we blew up some craters on Vimy ridge, and in combination with our artillery bombardment penetrated German trenches at a few points, from which our infestry was a few points.

withdrew.

"The repulse of strong British forces in this vicinity referred to in today's (Friday) German communication is not correct. Hostile artillery activity from the Vimy ridge to the neighborhood of Loos is below normal today (Friday).

from which our infantry subsequently Breach German Parapets.

"North of the Labasse canal we reached German parapets. Between Arras and the River Somme there was he usual artillery action on both sides, except about Thiepstal, where the hostile fire was above normal. "Clear weather enabled much suc-cessful aerial work to be done yester-day (Thursday), A certain amount of

More Than 600 Boys From Seventy Public Schools Entered in the Events.

Canoe Club to March.

Members of the Washington Cano will number about 100 persons, it is

Steward's Business College has joined Steward's Business College has joined the ranks of marchers. In a letter to the committee Frank C. Steward, president of the college, says the pupils are now engaged in forming a marching unit.

Bankers of the city expect to have a ocratic Convention at Roanoke.

ROANOKE, Va., June 3.-In a ses sion marked by harmony throughout.

and with but one contest in the naming of electors, Virginia democrats in convention here yesterday afternoon and last night elected Representative

Carter Glass a member of the democratic national committee and Rorer

A. James of Danville, chairman of the Twenty-four delegates to the na tional convention and twelve national electors were named, the delegates being instructed for Woodrow Wilson. Indorsement of the Wilson administra-tion and support of the administration's preparedness program are fea-tures of the platform, which was Tech Holds Annual Excursion.

Alumni, students and members of the faculty of McKinley Manual Training named without opposition.

unanimously adopted.

The fifth annual playground athletic

PLAYGROUND ATHLETES

Smith, Ross School, 0.06.1, winner; F. Fant, Cook School; Henry Rosenberg, Polk School, and Lester Engle, Cranch School

School.
50-yard dash, 100-pound class—George Jeffrey, Brookland School, 0.07.2, winner: G. Harsch, Webb School; Morris Poltein, Polk School, and James Brown, Hayes School.
70-yard dash, 115-pound class—E.
Marlow, Monroe School, 0.08.3, winner;
H. Bradley, Bryan School; D. Fetstein,
Brent School, and E. Dunlap, Eaton
School.

100-Yard Dash, Unlimited.

100-yard dash, unlimited class-Fred Cherry, Industrial Home School, 0.11.1, winner; Sam Cherry, Industrial Home School; J. Fegan, Hubbard School, and Stanley Mullin, Gales School.

High jump, 85-pound class-Roland Oxford, Maury School, 4 ft. 11/2 in., win-

Club are to march in white duck trousers, soft white shirts, white shoes

Curtis School.

Broad jump, 100-pound class—Philip Karnell, 15 feet 2 Inches, winner, Polk School; Robert Jones, Hubbard School, James Hayes, Dennison School, and Roger Lugenbiel. Ketcham School.

Broad jump, 115-pound class—Raymond Caruana, Ross School, 15 feet 4 Inches, winner; Staples Beyers, Carbery School; R. Ward, Langdon School, Broad jump, unlimited—E. Peterson, Ludlow School, 17 feet 4 Inches, winner; R. Bates, Carbery School; E. Hixon, Cook School, and E. Baldwin, Bryan School.

Winners of Palaw Parks School, Edward James Hossel Inches and Jump, unlimited—E. Baldwin, Bryan School.

Winners of Relay Races.

board of directors of the club the question of participation in the parade was considered and it was the consentation of the club should march. Notices to this effect have been sent out to the membership.

Mr. Blair said that he is endeavoring to have other clubs of the city, such as the Cosmos Club and University Club, have a good representation in the preparedness demonstration.

Members of the predaredness parade committee were happy to learn of the decision of the Metropolitan Club to participate by reason of the prominence of the organization and of the men constituting its membership. They expressed the belief that all the other clubs of the city will follow its example.

The Netional Press Club already has a considered a legal holiday and it will be possible for them to close their doors on that day and allow all their clerks to participate. Corcoran Thom is at work organizing the trust company officers and employes; J. C. Eckloff, the national banks; Howard Moran, savings banks; A. K. Parris, private banks. John M. Riordan is chairman of a committee which is to arrange for a band to accompany the bankers.

GLASS MADE COMMITTEEMAN.

Harmony Prevails in Virginia Democratic Convention at Roanoke.

Cafortz; second, Hilton School team; third, Addison School team, and fourth, Polk School team.

Relay race, unlimited class—First, Industrial Home School team, composed of Sam Cherry, J. Thompson, E. Hunter and F. Cherry; second, Wheatley School team, and fourth, Gales School team.

The officials of the meet were as follows:

Clerk of the course, John G. Petritz; assistant clerk of the field events, Michael Zurack, and marshals, Messrs. Heddings, Riebords, Scheitlin, Hart, Byings to man d Smoot. Officials in charge of dashes and relays: Referee, John D. O'Reilly: timers, M. R. Crane and John C. Myette; judges, C. Edward Beckett, Paul B. McCarthy and Lee Kemp; starter, J. V. Mulligan, and assistant starter M. R. Junkin. Officials in charge of broad jump: Judges, A. C. Joy. Craigin Donaldson and Willard Hart. Officials in charge of high jump; Judges, W. W. Frye and John B. McCarthy.

A law making it a crime to set on the course, in applications for passports punish able as perjury and would make crimates and such as perjury and would make crimates and such as perjury and would make crimates alter and would make crimates and such as perjury and w central party committee. Both were Paul

CAPT. NELSON BURIED.

Retired Navy Officer Paid Last Honors at Annapolis. Special Dispatch to The Star.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., June 3 .- The School went to Marshall Hall today on funeral of Capt. Thomas P. Nelson, the annual excursion of the Alumni Association. Athletic features formed a large part of the program. Dancing also was an attraction. eighty years old, U. S. N., retired, who died suddenly Thursday night, follow-Civil and electrical engineers are asked to communicate with Mr. Finney at the National Metropolitan Bank building.

There is every indication that the rifle clubs of the city will be well represented in the parade. The District of moon when it is full. this morning from his late residence in the Claude apartments. Interment was in the Naval cemetery. The funeral was with military honors, a detachment of marines from the Naval Academy barracks and bluejackets attached to the ships at the local station, headed by the academy band, forming the funeral cortege. A number of naval officers on duty at the academy attended the services, Capt. Edward W. Eberle, superintendent, and Capt. Louis M. Nulton, commandant of midshipmen, being among the pallbearers.

Since his retirement from active duty, a number of years ago, Capt. Nelson has made his home in Annapolis. He was the father-in-law of Commander Walter B.

The Claude apartments. Interment was in the Claude apartment to aid in the escape or attempt to swear falsely to any document intended for use by a foreign government in any dispute or controversy with the United States.

12. This proposal would make it a crime to water to obtain "without lawful authority" information relative to the national defense or for any one to obtain such information from unlawful access to government papers or by 9. Alpheus Winter of Colock, made a 98. M. R. Oglesby made an 88. making its score of 99. Alpheus Winter of Colock, made a 98. Simeon is score of 99. Alpheus Winter of Colock, made a 98. Simeon is score of 99. Alpheus Winter of Colock, made a 98. Simeon is score of 99. Alpheus Winter of Colock, made a 98. Simeon is score of 99. Alpheus Winter of Colock, made a 98. Simeon is score of 99. Alpheus Winter of Colock, made a 98. Simeon is score of 99. Alpheus Winter of Colock, made a 98. Simeon is score of 99. Alpheus Winter of Colock, made a 98. Simeon is score of 99. Alpheus Winter of Colock, made a 98. Simeon is score of 99. Alpheus Winter of Colock, made a 98. Simeon is score of 99. Alpheus Winter of Colock, made a 98. Simeon is score of 99. Alpheus Winter of Colock, made of the score of 99. Alpheus Winter of Velock, and in the escape.

12. This proposal would make it a cri the Claude apartments. Interment was

AS TO NEUTRALIT

Attorney General Gregory Asks Congress to Revise the Federal Statutes.

PUNISHMENT IS DIFFICULT UNDER THE PRESENT CODE

Many Offenses Committed During the Present War Which Government Cannot Punish.

General revision of American neu trality laws was proposed to Congress today in a memorandum submitted by Attorney General Gregory and concurred in by the State Department as a result of the government's experince with problems arising out of the war and of relations with Mexico. Enactment of eighteen laws is recommended to correct defects in existing statutes, to cover present omissions of law "for the observance of obligations imperatively imposed by international law upon the United States," and to law upon the United States," and to make crimes against American ne trality punishable under federal laws. At present many such acts do not violate federal criminal law.

Broaden President's Powers. Almost every phase of activity in the United States on behalf of foreign governments which has resulted in fed eral prosecution under the broad charge of conspiracy would be made specifically criminal by the proposed meet was held this morning and afternoon at the horse show grounds, 18th and D streets northwest, with more than 600 boys, from seventy public schools, entered in the events. The affair was given under the direction of John G. Petritz of the District playground department, who acted as clerk of the course.

The results of the events are as follows:

50-yard dash, 85-pound class—Robert Smith, Ross School, 0.06.1, winner; F. Smith, Ross School, Henry Rosenberg, or attempted use" of the vessels in violation of the purpose of "investigating and detecting any use or attempted use" of the vessels in violation. In addition, the powers of the President would be broadened with respect to withholding clearance to suspected vessels, further employment of the land and naval forces to preserve neutrality, imposing a more rigid and seizing arms and ammunition about to be exported in violation of an embargo. One of the proposed laws would authorize collectors of customs or other persons duly empowered by the President would be broadened with respect to withholding clearance to suspected vessels, further employment of the land and naval forces to preserve neutrality, imposing a more rigid and seizing arms and ammunition about to be exported in violation of an embargo. One of the proposed laws would authorize collectors of customs or other persons duly empowered by the President would be broadened with respect to withholding clearance to suspected vessels, further employment of the land and naval forces to preserve neutrality, imposing a more rigid censorship upon wireless and cable messages to belligerent countries and seizing arms and ammunition about to be exported in violation of an embargo. One of the proposed laws would authorize collectors of customs or other persons duly empowered by the President voulding clearance to suspected vessels, further employment of the land and naval forces to preserve neutrality, imposing a more rigid censorship upon wireless and cable messages to belligerent countries and the preserve perso meet was held this morning and after- legislation. In addition, the powers of or attempted use" of the vessels in vio-lation of neutrality laws. The use of Proposals for Legislation. The proposed legislation is as follows: ent or attempt to prevent exportation of American goods by threats or violence to persons engaged in the manu-

A third provision of this law would make it a crime to send or conspire to send from an American port any vessel to participate in hostilities or to be delivered to a belligerent nation for participation in hostilities.

NO Unarge Egenno In connection with the taking of these affidavits some persons have been led to assume that these charges of peonton in hostilities.

foot, participate in or attempt to par-ticipate in any naval expedition against a power with which the United States is at peace. The present law does not specifically include naval expeditions specifically include naval expeditions with military expeditions.

9. Authorizing the President to detain or seize arms about to be exported in violation of an embargo.

To Make Escape Criminal.

10. A law making it a crime for any interned officer, soldier or sailor of a of yesterday. E. B. Eynon recorded a belligerent government to attempt to round of 84-42 out and the same in. ing a stroke of apoplexy, took place escape from the United States, and also thereby taking the lead, as W. C. Balmaking it a crime for any one to aid or attempt to aid in the escape or at- a result of yesterday's play, went poor-with which the United States is at

14. A law making it a crime to conspire to destroy or injure property within the United States belonging to any foreign government with which any foreign government with which the United States is at peace, "when such an injury or destruction is an of-fense under the laws of such foreign country of the grade of felony or in-famous crime and when one or more parties to such conspiracy do any act in the United States to effect the object of the conspiracy.

15. This proposal would make it a crime for any one to assume or pretend to be a diplomatic, consular or other official of a foreign government accredited to the United States, with integt to defraud such foreign government or any person.

Curbs Foreign Agents. 16. A law to prevent aliens other han diplomatic or consular officers or attaches from acting in the United States as the agents of foreign governents without prior notification to and the consent of the government of the United States.

17. Authorizing the President "to employ the land and naval forces of the United States to detain any vessel, public or private, foreign or domestic, in compliance with, or in order to prevent the violation of, the international obligations of the United States relating to neutrality, or to enforce any or all other obligations. all other obligations imposed upon the United States by the law of nations, by treaties or conventions to which the United States is a party, or by the statutes of the United States."

18. A law authorizing the issue of search warrants in the enforcement of criminal laws relating to foreign relations and the observance of neutral obligations, and of other criminal law.

STILL UNDER PROBE

Affidavits Being Taken Regarding Complaints of Washington Terminal Employes.

substantiation of the charges of "peonage," which resulted in a strike of station this week, is being continued today at Masonic Hall, 8th and F davits were taken yesterday, which Edmund Leigh, special investigator for today he believed are of great importance. He will continue on the job, h says, until he "gets to the bottom of this disgraceful condition."

While these affidavits are being taken the strikers have been meeting in the lower hall. The feature of today's meeting was advice to the strikers from George A. Nolte, vice president of the Brotherhood of Railway Carmen, regarding have lodgeroom, nearly regarding how they should go to draw their pay Monday.

Strikers Are "Warned." Some of the strikers have been warned facture or exportation of such articles or by damage to the articles, the instrumentalities of their transportation or their place of manufacture.

In explanation, the Attorney General wages. Customarily they have not been says that the activities of foreign sympathizers in this connection cannot at present be reached easily by any federal law.

forced to sign any receipt, but have been identified by their bosses and given their pay. Mr. Notte advised that they go in a body and accept their pay in the usual

Oxford, Maury School, 4 ft. 1½ in., winner; Philip Garges, Maury School; Edgar Glaser, Abbott School, and Earl Kirchner, Polk School.

High jump, 100-pound class—Hutchinson, Bryan School, 4 feet 7 inches, winner; I. W. Johnson, Gales School; Stafford Kerman, Cook School, and William Zalzak, Force School, 4 feet 7 inches, winner; George Smoot, Dennison Sullivan, Force School, 4 feet 7 inches, winner; George Smoot, Dennison School; Raymond Eddey, Abbott School, and C. Peterson, Ludiow School.

High jump, unlimited class—Hugh Johnston, West School, 4 feet 9 inches, winner; Campbell King, Ross School; A feet 9 inches, winner; Campbell King, Ross School; A feet 8 inches, winner; Campbell King, Ross School; A feet 8 inches, winner; Campbell King, Ross School; J. Fellow, Force School, and M. McCarthy, Curtis School.

Broad jump, 85-pound class—Vernon Kunkle, Maury School, 14 feet 8 inches, winner; W. Frank, Cook School; J. The School School, Broad jump, 100-pound class—Philip for the President to detain an armed vessel of the President to detain an armed vessel of the President to detain an armed vessel owned wholly or in part by American or foreign, that has not entered the ports for the Light was brought in stagetton and under Mr. Keppel so promise to the terminal employes that he would have their peonage charges throughly probed.

Mr. Nolte edvised that they say.

Mr. Nolte advised that they say.

Mr. Nolte advised that they say.

Mr. Nolte edvising the say.

Mr. Nolte edvising the say.

Mr. Nolte especially warned against any disorders and urged them as they got their pay not to be seen about say.

Mr. Nolte edvising the say.

Mr. Nolte edvising the say.

Mr. Nolte edvisory Mr. Nolte especially war.

Mr. Nolte especially war. Nolte especially war.

Nolte of say.

Mr. Nolte especially war. Nolte especially war.

Mr. Nolte especially war. Nolte especially war.

Mr. Nolte especially war. Nolte especially war.

Nolte of stafford for the say in the usual war.

Mr. Nolte especially war. Nolte especially war. Nolte espec tion in hostilities.

4.—Under this law, collectors of cusday include Superintendent Keppel as Relay race, 85-pound class—First, Ross School team, composed of Robert Schmidt, Earl Slye, Spottiswood White and Stanley Leverton; second, Polk School team; third, Pierce Schol team, and fourth, Industrial Home School team.

Relay race, 100-pound class—First, Ross School team, composed of Edward Altemus, Nevin Johnson, F. Johnson Relay race, 100-pound class—First, Ross School team, composed of Edward Altemus, Nevin Johnson, F. Johnson and Ralph Dayton; second, Pierce School team; third, Force School team.

Relay race, 115-pound class—First, Force school team. composed of H. Kleinpeter, S. Amato, E. Sullivan and I. Cafortz; second, Hilton School team; third, Addison School team, and fourth, Polk School team.

Relay race, unlimited class—First In-Relay race unlimited class—First Tourney.

The second day's play in the District golf championship at the Columbia Country Club was begun this morning with threats of rain hanging over the players' heads. The golf this morning was about of the same average as that lantyne, who was tied with Eynon as Government's latest educational project has but recently been completed; a train of twelve cars containing exhibits of work of various government departments visited many cities and was inspected by throngs. Read this article tomorrow in The Sunday Star,

150,000 PEOPLE SEE EXHIBITS OF "SAFETY-FIRST TRAIN"